

EWU Libraries Announces Library Faculty Position

Contact information for the IUG Conference: Julie Miller, staying at the Denver Marriott City Center. The phone number for the Marriott is 297-1300.

REFERENCE & INSTRUCTION LIBRARIAN, HEAD OF INFORMATION SERVICES: Twelve-month, tenure-track position. Provides reference and instruction services to students, faculty, and staff directly and through development of traditional and electronic resources that support independent inquiry. Provides leadership and direction to library faculty and staff in the Information Services units of the John F. Kennedy Library. These units perform the following functions: reference & instruction; library systems operations; special collections and university archives development and services; interlibrary loan; non-print media assistance; learning resources services. Staff includes: 8 library faculty, 9 classified and administrative staff. (For information about purpose and services, see The Library Plan, Parts III & IV at www.ewu.edu/x6419.xml) As head of Information Services, 25% of this position's workload is assigned to administrative duties associated with leadership of the division, to ensure that divisional priorities, resource allocations, and expenditures serve the established goals of the division and the library.

Qualifications: Required: Masters degree in library science from an ALA-accredited program, minimum 7 years progressively responsible experience in academic library services. Meet qualifications for appointment as Librarian II or (preferred) as Librarian III. Demonstrated success in leadership and management of personnel and operations, excellence in performance in reference and instruction, knowledge of current trends and concepts of academic library services, knowledge of the application of technology in libraries and current trends in library technology and commitment to excellence in service to students, faculty, and staff.

Salary/Appointment: $51,000-60,000 for twelve-month, tenure-track appointment at Librarian II or Librarian III. Review of applications begins on April 3 and continues until the position is filled. Start date negotiable. Quality TIAA/CREFF retirement program; comprehensive medical insurance; ample vacation and established holidays; generous sick leave; assistance with moving expenses; support for professional development and more.

APPLICATION: For further details contact cking2@ewu.edu. To apply send letter of application, resume, and a list of at least three references to Carol King, EWU Libraries, 816 F Street, 100 LIB, Cheney, WA 99004-2453.

EWU is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer, and applications from members of historically under-represented groups are especially encouraged. The successful candidate for each position will be required to show proof of eligibility to work in the U.S. pursuant to U.S. immigration laws and to pass a background check.